Re: Doe v. Syracuse University, No. 22 Civ. 644 (TJM/TWD)

Dear Judge McAvoy:

We represent defendant Syracuse University in the above-referenced action. We write to respectfully request an extension of time to answer or otherwise respond to plaintiff's complaint. Plaintiff's counsel has consented to this request.

This action seeks to challenge plaintiff's expulsion from Syracuse University following a sexual misconduct investigation. Plaintiff's 266-paragraph complaint asserts claims under Title IX, the New York State Human Rights Law, and state contract law. Defendant's current deadline to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint is August 22, 2022. In light of the breadth of the allegations in the complaint, as well as scheduling conflicts among counsel for defendant, we respectfully request a three-week extension of that deadline, to September 12, 2022.

This is defendant's first request for an extension of time.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Daniel R. Alonso
